COACHES QUOTES

BENGAL HEAD COACH SAM WYCHE

"There is a tremendous quarterback over there. He is a great football player and he (Testaverde) will be a star. He was a fine pick for the Buccaneers and he was fun to watch. He will pack this stadium."

"Testaverde, everything doesn't have to go right for him to make a big play."

"We played a sub-par game and we made some mistakes. We can't line up with 20 seconds on the clock and let them complete a Hail Mary. I like to see our team win when we're not playing well."

"Boomer and our starters had a good night and our young players made mistakes. But Tampa Bay is on their way."

BUC HEAD COACH RAY PERKINS

"In spots we played some pretty good defense in the first half. They got some pretty big plays on us on errors that are correctible. But in the first half I didn't think we played very physical football game. I didn't think our hitting was intense as a defensive team and certainly not as an offensive team."

"I thought we played better in some certain areas and nickle defense and third down situations in the second half. "

"We had too many silly penalties on both sides of the ball. You can't win committing the penalties we committed."

"I know we played against a great football team from the standpoint of talent. No one in football has any better talent than the Cincinnati Bengals. I can guarantee that."

PLAYER QUOTES

BENGAL PLAYERS

Dave Rimington: "A lot of times you don't realize a QB isn't behind you in the pocket. When he rolls out he sometimes makes you look bad. We had a little more pressure tonight than we anticipated. We'll have to work on that."

Cris Collinsworth: "Usually I only play about two series in the preseason. That Testaverde is something. That cat is a player. That's amazing with a new coach and quarterback can do many things right. They could be the team of the 80s and 90s. I'm sure if you talk to Vinny he's glad to have a guy like DeBerg to work with. On his first play, I said, 'look at this guy he looks like a veteran.' It's fun watching him (Testaverde). To tell you the truth I'm glad he's in the NFC. As good as he is I wouldn't trade him for Boomer. I definitely rate Boomer in the top two or three in the AFC. That TD is my least favorite part of practice. We're dead tired in practice and Boomer starts rolling out and I slide back and forth in the endzone and that's exactly the way it worked tonight."

Doug Gaynor: "About the 40 second clock it makes everyone a little more tired and it rushed a little more. I think I had some good plays and made some things happen. I honestly didn't feel that bad about the first interception because it slipped out of my hand. But the second one bothered me because it was just a dump play."
