NOTES AND QUOTES

Tampa Bay strong safety CRAIG SWOOPE became the second Buc in as many weeks to score a touchdown the first time he touched the ball in a Buc uniform. Last week FRANK MIDDLETON scored on his first run ever as a Buc with a six-yarder. Tonight it was SWOOPE returning an interception 36 yards for the score. SWOOPE and fellow rookie ROD JONES each had their first NFL interception tonight. SWOOPE's 36-yard return was just nine yards shy of the Buc preseason record set by CEDRIC BROWN with a 45-yarder vs. Houston 8/4/84.

The Buc defense again played the opponent's third downs very stingy. Tonight the Bucs allowed 5 of 12 third down conversions. Last week it was 5 of 18 against St. Louis. In two weeks the Bucs have allowed 10 of 30 third down conversions for a 33.3 percentage. Last year, the Bucs defense allowed a 41.5% third down conversion rate.

AARON BROWN, who played for Atlanta tonight, once played for the Buccaneers from 1978 to 1980. He attempts to return to the NFL after playing in Canada.

ATLANTA now leads the preseason series with Tampa Bay by a 5-3 margin. The two teams meet again September 28th in a regular season game. Tampa Bay holds a 3-2 lead in that series.

NATHAN WONSLEY and JAMES WILDER both had 13 carries tonight. Wonsley had 71 yards and Wilder 49.

INJURIES

For Tampa Bay, nothing believed to be too serious. BOB NELSON (elbow); KEVIN KELLIN (shoulder contusion).

LEEMAN BENNETT will be available to the press at 4 p.m. Sunday at One Buccaneer Place.

QUOTES

DAN HENNING (His defense) "The defense played pretty well in the first half. We gave them 10 points. But overall our defense had a good game."

"The Bucs played a lot of people and they didn't have a lot of continuity on offense."

(WILLIAM ANDREWS) "He was showing a little burst in there. He's looking better every day."

(AARON BROWN) "He knows all the linebacking positions. He's a good special teams player. He's a solid player."

(TURK SCHONERT) "He did play pretty good. The interception for a touchdown was tipped by a receiver."

WILLIAM ANDREWS "We didn't play that well on offense. We weren't together. We made a few mistakes especially with the turnovers."

"I'm happy to be back. All I want to do is get back on an even keel to make my contribution to the team."

TONY CASILLAS "I did o.k. But I got a little tired at the end of the third quarter. I'm just gald to get out there on the field and show what I have."
