POST-GAME QUOTES

BUC INJURIES - Cecil Johnson - bruised knee
Tony Chickillo - sprained ankle
Andy Hawkins - bruised knee
Larry Swider - pulled groin (pregame warmup)

STAT CHANGES - Team Stats - Atlanta 24 pass attempts, which changes Atlanta total offensive plays to 56. Atlanta kickoff return yardage, 68. (All figures on individual stats are correct).

ATLANTA COACH DAN HENNING: "I'd say it was an uneven performance just like the one last week. We're supposed to get better and we are not. Too many offsides on defense."

(pass rush by Tampa Bay) "We were not protecting them (the qbs) well. We just had a breakdown in protection. I don't think they were doing anything unexpected."

TAMPA BAY COACH JOHN MCKAY: (best game of preseason?) "No, no. You can't get over 10 penalties and beat a team very much. We played with a little more aggressiveness. You'd have to say that. Tonight we blocked a little bit better than we had for the run."

(quarterbacks) "The quarterback situation will be the same until I decide to change it. We may start Golsteyn next week to see how he handles the number one team."

(Key's kickoff return): "We made a kickoff return. I certainly enjoyed the fact we made a kickoff return. That almost was the eighth wonder of the world."

(non-dramatic win): "It feels great. We had to come from behind (0-3). We always had to come from behind. I've heard that someplace too."

(Next week): "We'll experiment some more."
