TAMPA BAY COACH JOHN MCKAY

We didn't play well tonight and got beat. Our special teams are an abortion and we will change some of them.

I really think this is enough preseason. I like playing in a league where everything counts. We're at the point now where everyone is bummed up. I would have rather played New York than Miami tonight.

GOAL LINE COMMENTS - If your good you should get it in from lthat close in on four tries. We didn't and that disturbs me.

I was looking at a lot of players. The losing coach has the right to say this.

WILLIAMS AS A STARTER? - I don't know. He tore his thumbnail almost off in the first half. It was bleeding profusely at halftime. Huff has a bruised leg. With our luck Williams will lose his thumb and Huff will have a broken leg. Boryla didn't make one mistake tonight.

INTERCEPTIONS - They weren't late, just to the wrong area.

WILLIAMS - He is an excellent quarterback. You will long ring the praises of Doug Williams as long as you write.

MIAMI COACH DON SHULA

ON WIN - It was a great job by our defense on that goal line stand. However we do walk away with a lot of respect for Tampa Bay, especially Doug Williams. Tonight he proved just how good he is. He made the big difference. He threw with great velocity and had great poise back there. He will really make it exciting for Tampa Bay.

ON BUCS DEFENSE - The defense, as always, was tough. They were all over the place. Now that Tampa Bay has an offense to put points on the board, they are going to be tough.

ON GRIESE - He said he injured his knee when he rolled on it and I don't know the full extent of the injury or if he'll miss any action.
