POST-GAME QUOTES

TAMPA BAY BUCCANEERS	VS.	DETROIT LIONS	October 14, 1984	Pontiac Silverdome
Visitor		Home	Date	Site

DETROIT LIONS HEAD COACH MONIE CLARK:

"Happy with the victory. I'm proud of the effort by our team because they fought hard all the way. Danielson did a great job. Obviously, he showed no ill effects from his calf injury. On defense, it was our best effort. We stopped them on a crucial 4th down, indicative of the way the defense played. I'm happy in that it snaps our losing streak. If we had lost, it obviously would have been a heartbreaker."

TAMPA BAY BUCCANEERS HEAD COACH JOHN MCKAY:

"We had plenty of opportunities to win. We moved the ball but didn't score. (The winning TD?) One thing we couldn't have was them getting the ball inside the twenty. Murray is too good a field goal kicker. So what if it's a touchdown, we still lose with a field goal. We just have to keep Murray out of range."
